It's our birthday every month in my office, at least. After a year of giving someone a birthday card and everyone signed it, we started coming up with different ideas. We decorated the tables with giant paintings; we signed the balloons and made a kind of bouquet that we had little animal figurines with little notes about Happy Birthday. But I think one of my favorites, because how just brilliant it is, was when we made a birthday hat and everyone signed it. It was even more fun because the birthday boy wore it, and we took a picture for social media purposes (which is why I won't share it here...) Instead of just something signed, it could be a really fun way to wear your birthday! I connected what a simple template looks like and what it looked like when we were all done with it.
